4th International Collective Action Conference Mainstreaming Collective Action for Fair and Sustainable Business

The Basel Institute on Governance (BIG) is an international and independent not-for-profit organization working worldwide with the public and private sectors to counter corruption and other financial crimes and improve governance quality.

The Basel Institute with support from Siemens Integrity Initiative (SII) hosted the 4th International Collective Action Conference titled “Mainstreaming Collective Action for Fair and Sustainable Business” on 30th June and 1st July 2022 at BIG University, Switzerland. The conference reflected the joint efforts of diverse stakeholders globally to mitigate corruption challenges across the sectors.

4TH INTERNATIONAL COLLECTIVE ACTION CONFERENCE 2022

30 JUNE TO 1 JULY 2022, BASEL, SWITZERLAND

Dr. Somnath Singh, Programme Manager, UN Global Compact Network India (UNGCNI) attended the conference, represented the organization, and shared its Anti-Corruptions initiatives with global leaders.

The conference involved collective action practitioners, representatives from international and regional organizations and standard-setting bodies, governments, businesses, civil society organizations and research institutions who have been shaping the evolution of Collective Action to address bribery, fair competition and human rights and raise standards of integrity across industry sectors and economies around the world.

In addition to the panel discussions, workshops, exhibitions and networking opportunities, the conference featured an inaugural award ceremony recognizing two outstanding and inspiring Anti-Corruption Collective Action initiatives in Nigeria and Ukraine.

Over 200 leading Anti-Corruption professionals from the public and private sectors, civil society organizations and academia came together at the conference and shared their insights and strategies to fight corruption across the sectors globally.

Besides this, Dr. Somnath Singh attended an LNs meeting with UNGC on 29th June 2022 (Evening) wherein the LNs (Project partners of UNGC) shared their achievements, ongoing progress and the future plan of their Anti-Corruption Collective Action projects. The meeting was led by Ms. Ashley, Programme Manager, Anti-Corruption, UNGC.
